PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Dear Members of Farmington Art Foundation,

I hope this letter finds you preparing for an enjoyable creative summer. As we approach the end of my current term as president, I want to share an important update regarding our leadership that occurred at the May meeting.

Several months ago, I announced that I would not seek re-election for the position of president of the Farmington Art Foundation. However, after careful consideration and discussion with fellow members, I have decided to continue in this role as president. It is an honor to serve alongside such a passionate and creative community.

Regrettably, no other members expressed interest in running for the position of president. While this lack of candidates is unexpected, I am committed to ensuring the continuity of our foundation's mission. Together, we will continue to foster artistic growth, organize inspiring events, and support local artists.

I look forward to the year ahead and am excited about the projects and initiatives we have planned. If you have any ideas or suggestions, please feel free to reach out to me directly.

Thank you for your continued dedication to the Farmington Art Foundation. Let us create, inspire, and thrive together.

Warm regards,
Richard Adams,
President,
Farmington Art Foundation
